Welcome to the second annual Undergraduate Philosophy Conference at Emory University, sponsored by Phi Sigma Tau and the Emory Philosophy Review.

Conference Schedule

10:00 am – 12:30 pm:
Undergraduate Student Presentations
Candler 120

“On the Necessity of Human Goodness And, Remembering Korczak in the Age of Casual Misanthropy” by Matt Mach

“Reconfiguring Ethical and Epistemic Traditions: A Critical Analysis of White Male Epistemic Hegemony and Power relations that Underlie Testimonial and Hermeneutical Injustice” by Iman Williams

“Skepticism and the Art World: An Investigation” by Brian Wiora

“Reconciling Materiality and the Non-Human within Performativity” by Alex Yoakum

12:30 – 1:00 pm:
Lunch
White Hall Lobby
Boxed Lunches

1:00 – 2:00 pm:
Keynote Address
White Hall 110

Donald Phillip Verene, Candler Professor of Metaphysics and Moral Philosophy

“The Pursuit of the Pursuit of Truth”

Presentation followed by Q&A